NEBRASKA BUILDING CHAPTER
THE CONSTRUCTION ASSOCIATION

GC & SC ROUNDTABLE: Mental Wellness and Suicide Awareness and Prevention

DATE: Thursday, September 29, 2022
TIME: 3:00 – 5:00pm
LOCATION: Round the Bend Steakhouse, Conference Center, Ashland

The numbers are jolting. Construction workers commit suicide at three times the national average. More American construction workers die by suicide than from job site injuries or accidents. Construction has the second highest suicide rate of any industry. Learn to recognize the warning signs and how to get help for someone in crisis.

Presenters include:

Sheri Dawson, R.N.
 Director of the Division of Behavioral Health in the Department of Health and Human Services. She was appointed by Governor Pete Ricketts effective August 12, 2015, she had served as acting director of the division since early 2015. Since joining DHHS in 2001, Sheri has held several different roles within the department, including Deputy Director of Community-Based Services, QI and Managed Care Administrator, Program Specialist and Nurse Surveyor/Consultant.

Dan Dwyer
 Compliance Assistance Specialist (CAS) for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). He started with OSHA in 2016 as a Compliance Safety and Health Officer specializing in Safety. In 2020, he was promoted to be the CAS where his responsibilities include providing general information about OSHA standards, speaking at seminars, workshops, or event, and promoting OSHA's cooperative programs.

Molly Woodman
 Outreach Coordinator at The Kim Foundation. Born and raised in Omaha, she earned her bachelor's degree in Communications from UNO. Molly spent fourteen years as the Director of Admissions and Recruitment at an area private high school. Her passion for public speaking and advocacy led her to The Kim Foundation in August of 2022.
